

Excuse me stranger, but here in America, your right to smoke-free air ends where my property line begins

"Thanks for the offer of government regulation to protect us from ourselves, but we prefer freedom."

Now...

...we would love for you to pull up a chair and visit for a while, but if our smoke bothers you, you have the freedom to leave."